Carol, according to the National Archives' publication "Immigrant & Passenger Arrivals," M237, rolls 109-122 cover Jan 6, 1852 to Jan 22, 1853 and rolls 123-135 include Jan 25, 1853 to Jan 18, 1854. I don't know if no ships arrived Jan 23 and 24, or if the records or missing. I suspect the former. It is not uncommon for the immigrant to record the wrong date for his arrival, especially if the naturalization papers were completed many years later. Most Irish came through New York at this time period, but Boston, Baltimore and Philadelphia are other possibilities. However, these particular ship passenger lists of this time period will not supply you with much information--probably no more than what you now have. So you may want to focus on other research that will give you this ancestor's birth place in Ireland so you can continue the search.

Tape from Grandma

When GRANDMA HINTZ was a youngster, there was a war between Denmark and Germany; and the soldiers came in and were stealing everything from their house. Her mother hid her under the table when the soldiers came. Elena? Emma? Lena? I don't know--one of the babies. And she had three babies?
Yes.

And HINTZ died? Yes, he died. Then what happened? It was a few years after that she married ZEPP. What was his name? I don't know. He was an architect--he built the Milwaukee library or something, and then we went to New York and he was working there; but she didn't stay with him. She left him in New York and took your pa home to Chicago. They lived in New York--about a year? I don't know. That guy would hardly give your pa anything to eat--he didn't like him. I guess he whipped him--there was something, I don't know.

But she came back to EMMA's with your pa. And I think they lived on Zepulski.

Where did you live on Lemoyne Street--3321. I was born at 507 N. Ashland Ave. What time was I born? Somewhere around 8 in the morning. I was going all night Friday and Saturday morning til Schroeder said "Would you please put water on?" All three were instrument babies.

Cassin (Kasten), Mrs.W.T.

Posted by Mary Saggio <sagg@execpc.com> on Mon, 13 Dec 1999

Surname: CASSIN, KASTEN, BELLEW

From "The Cedarburg Weekly News" (Ozaukee County)
Wednesday, June 15, 1887

Mrs. Kasten of Milwaukee, daughter of Mr. John Bellew of this city, died in Milwaukee last Saturday at the age of about twenty-five years after having been married for nearly two years. The remains were brought out from Milwaukee last Monday morning and interred in the St. Francis cemetery, the funeral service being held in the church. A large number of friends and sympathizers followed the remains out from Milwaukee and to the grave.

("The Cedarburg Weekly News" (Ozaukee County) Wednesday, June 22, 1887: "A mistake was made in last week's NEWS in the obituary notice of Mr. J. Bellew's daughter. The name should have been Mrs. W.T. Cassin. We beg pardon for the error")

Subject: William Cassin/ Co. Kilkenny born 1847

Posted by: Shane Cassin

Message: I am very new to this genealogy thing. I actually just seriously started research tonight as I am planning a trip to Ireland in august.
I am starting from the earliest date in a book my mother is putting together and I am going to work backwards since she is working forward.
The paragraph I am starting with reads like this:
"Your Grandfather was the eleventh child of his parents, born in 1847,after the death of his father.
The family home was on county Kilkenny, Ireland. these were terrible years in Ireland, and we may be sure that the widow with her large family knew hard times.
When your grandfather was nine years old, she brought her children to this country.
I think the two eldest sons had come earlier.
They stopped a short time in New York state, then settled in Illinois, where most of the family have remained.
The mother lived to the age of a hundred and four years,strong in every way until her death.
She was born in 1799, and died in 1903, when your grandfather died in 1917, there were still the eight sisters living."
This William Cassin attended Lombard College in Galesdurg, which is now part of Knox. He was given a madter of arts in 1907. "Your grandfather was trained as a lwayer and surveyer and practiced both professions. After leaving college , he came west, sometimes teaching, sometimes surveying or keeping store, and arrived in Texasin 1872."

arrived in Texasin 1872.
I am trying to find out more about the brothers and sisters. I am more intrested in the fathers name and family in Ireland at this point, but would like to come back this way thru the rest or the brothers and sisters after my trip.

MULLIN`S SEAT WILL BE HARD TO FILL

Sun Sentinel; Fort Lauderdale; Aug 11, 1993; HENRY FITZGERALD JR., Staff Writer;

Abstract:

[Wally Elfers] had known [John Mullin] since 1975. The two used to attend City Commission meetings and often talked about one day sitting on the dais themselves. After learning the ropes and meeting the people who could put him on track for a seat, Mullin was elected in 1976 to the City Council, as it was called then.

WEST BROWARD

LAUDERHILL -- City Commissioner John Mullin`s gruff, froggy voice and no- nonsense demeanor gave him a tough exterior, but it never took long for his friendly personality to change first impressions.

"He had an unbelievable sense of humor," City Commissioner Wally Elfers said on Monday, two days after Mullin died at 76 of lung disease. "He could take a sticky situation confronting the commission, tell a joke and floor you. After he`d do that, he could take control and get the commission to vote. It was almost like father speaking when he talked. Everyone knew it was time to get down to business."

Elfers had known Mullin since 1975. The two used to attend City Commission meetings and often talked about one day sitting on the dais themselves. After learning the ropes and meeting the people who could put him on track for a seat, Mullin was elected in 1976 to the City Council, as it was called then.

Mullin served until 1988. A year later, he ran again, beating former mayor David Kaminsky to fill a seat left vacant by the death of former Commissioner Ben Dantzker.

At that time, the city filled vacancies by holding special elections. Now, the commission appoints new commissioners. Mullin`s death creates the third vacant seat in nine months.

Alice Reiter was appointed in November to fill a seat left vacant by Matt Meadows, who was elected to the state Legislature. In May, George Myles was appointed to fill a seat vacated when former Commissioner Beverly Bard- Stracher resigned to become a full-time mother.

Mullin was re-elected to a two-year term this year. His seat will be open for election in 1994.

Commissioners already are receiving calls from residents interested in the seat, but officials have canceled city meetings this week in mourning and are flying flags at half-staff.

"Our first priority is to make sure (Mr. Mullin`s) family is taken care of and then we`ll worry about filling his seat," said Myles. "I think the people who are calling about the seat have lost sight of what`s important here."

During his 17 years on the commission, Mullin ; started a municipal bonds program to raise money for road and street and sewer improvements; started a bond refinancing program that saved the city millions of dollars in interest payments; created the city`s pension plan; and helped revamp the city`s civil service program.

When he died, he was in his fourth term as commission president. He had served two terms as commission treasurer. He also served as chairman and vice chairman of the Broward County Planning Council, director and president of the Broward County League of Cities, and had been a member of the environmental committee for the National League of Cities.

"He was our most experienced commissioner and was responsible for many people who are or were on the commission," said Commissioner Richard Kaplan. "He actually helped shape the city in many ways. This is a real big loss for us." A Mass will be held on Thursday at 10:30 a.m. at St. Helen Catholic Church, 3033 Northwest 33rd Ave., Lauderdale Lakes.

J. MULLIN, COMMISSIONER IN LAUDERHILL SINCE `76

Sun Sentinel; Fort Lauderdale; Aug 9, 1993; NANCY SAN MARTIN, Miami Bureau;

Abstract:

Born in Chicago, Mr. Mullin moved to Lauderhill in 1974 to retire from his profession as a merchandise buyer for Sears, Roebuck and Co. He was drawn to public service almost immediately and entered the political arena two years after his arrival.

BROWARD

LAUDERHILL -- Commissioner John Mullin, who held office almost half of the city`s 34 years, died of lung disease on Saturday night. He was 76.

Mr. Mullin died at University Hospital in Tamarac, where he had undergone surgery for lung cancer a week ago, City Clerk Muriel Trombley said.

Mr. Mullin had served on the City Commission for almost 17 years and was re- elected last year. In commemoration of his death, all flags in the city will be flown at half-staff, and public meetings have been cancelled through Friday.

"He was an institution of the city," said Alice Reiter, who is considered by some to be Mr. Mullin`s protege on the City Commission.

Colleagues and friends described him as a simple, honest man with great knowledge.

"Everybody knew Mr. Mullin very well," Trombley said. "He was probably everybody`s favorite."

Born in Chicago, Mr. Mullin moved to Lauderhill in 1974 to retire from his profession as a merchandise buyer for Sears, Roebuck and Co. He was drawn to public service almost immediately and entered the political arena two years after his arrival.

Mr. Mullin was first elected to the commission in 1976. He retired from politics when his term expired in 1988 but was called out of retirement nine months later when a seat was vacated by the death of Ben Dantzker.

In response to persuasion from Mayor Ilene Lieberman, Mr. Mullin ran in a special election in 1989 and won. He had held a seat on the commission since then.

The World War II veteran also was active with community groups. Whenever there was a public function, Mr. Mullin was almost always present.

"He was a person`s politician," said Frank Roberts, his campaign manager and friend. "He could take a 20-page ordinance and reduce it to five lines so everyone could understand it."

Mr. Mullin`s sense of humor and knack for maintaining order made him popular at commission meetings.

"In a heated discussion, he would say a joke and break everybody up, cool things off," said Arnie Seldin, a 12-year Lauderhill resident and activist. "Mediator is a good word, that is what he was."

She said, "When anyone needed him, John was there. John was my friend and a person well-liked by everybody. He will be missed."

Reiter, who was appointed to the commission nine months ago, called Mr. Mullin "the kind of guy who could get things done on the commission. Sometimes, he was the ultimate compromiser."

Mr. Mullin is survived by his wife, Florence; three sons, Terrance, 48, of Davie; John E. III, 45, of Grosse Pointe, Mich.; and James, 42, of Bronxville, N.Y.; two daughters-in-law and 10 grandchildren.

Visitation will be from 7 to 9 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday at Fred Hunter`s Cremation Memorial Center in Lauderhill. A memorial service will be held at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at St. Helen Catholic Church in Lauderdale Lakes.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Hospice Care in Broward.

CITY HALL MIGHT BE NAMED FOR LONGTIME COUNCILMAN

Sun Sentinel; Fort Lauderdale; Aug 25, 1993; HENRY FITZGERALD JR. Staff Writer;

Abstract:
"That would be one of the greatest compliments anyone could ever give to [John Mullin]," she tearfully said. "He would be so proud to know he was thought of so highly. Can you imagine how proud that would make our 10 grandchildren to one day drive through the city and see their grandfather's name on City Hall?" [Alice Reiter] said it would be appropriate to name a city building after Mullin.

The legacy of the late John Mullin may live far longer than the 17 years he served on the City Commission. City Hall will be named the John E. Mullin Jr. City Hall Complex, according to a proposal by Commissioner Alice Reiter that will be heard by the full commission on Monday evening.

Mullin, 76, died on Aug. 7. of lung disease.

His widow, Florence Mullin, said she was honored that her husband of 51 years might be remembered this way.

"That would be one of the greatest compliments anyone could ever give to John," she tearfully said. "He would be so proud to know he was thought of so highly. Can you imagine how proud that would make our 10 grandchildren to one day drive through the city and see their grandfather's name on City Hall?" Reiter said it would be appropriate to name a city building after Mullin.

"John left a permanent mark on the city and on the commission, so it's fitting to give something permanent back," said Reiter. "I can't think of a better way than to name City Hall after him."

Mullin, a retired businessman from Sears, had served on the commission since 1976.

"After serving on the commission for half of the city's life and after all of the things he has done for the city this is the least we could do," said Commissioner Richard Kaplan. "He has given as much to this city as as anyone else in the city's history."

Family story: The family was forced to leave in the 1840s. Two came directly here, some went to England first, and at least one moved to Dublin. A Cassin in Ireland said the family lived on the Teague Estate and that in the 1840s the family huts were burned and family members were offered free passage to England, Australia or the U.S.

From Tim Cassin: tim.cassin@firstextended.com (Cassin, Tim)

[illegible]y great-grandfather Denis, My great-grandmother Delia (nee. O'Laughlin), and at least six others are buried in Calvary. John and Michael both infants b. 1870s, Thomas(Chicago police detective b. 1880s) as well as Mae born 1882 died 1983. she lived with my family for a while and there were about 30 Cassins there for her funeral. I know where the plot is however I do not know the number. I was told that there was a scare about drinking water contamination in the 1870-1880 time frame and that several family members were moved from the cemetery at Lincoln Park and re-buried in Calvary.

My father was Edward Thomas (Ted). My brother Kevin has a listing of over 300 Cassins. Kevin lives in River Forest, IL. Not all of his information is connected.

Our oldest living relative at this time is Nona Cassin Meehan born 10-19-08. She is my dad's sister. We believe that our Great-grandfather was born in Inistigoe Parish county Kilkenny near Thomastown in about 1830. He died in Feb. 1898. He came over the week after his brother Michael in 1842.

Another brother Anthony came over and lived with his wife across the street from them. I believe it was 535 Kinzie. Another brother, maybe Edward came over and settled in St. Louis area on the Illinois side. Another brother John came over and went to Independence Mo. and then moved to Chicago. They had another brother James, who stayed in Ireland for awhile and was married in Dublin. He had a son William that I met once.

The story goes that the family was forced to leave in the 1840s two came directly here, some went to England first and at least one moved to Dublin. I was told by a Cassin from Ireland that the family lived on the Teague Estate and that in the 1840's the family huts were burned and family members were offered free passage to England, Australia or US. Where as I do know that this effected a Cassin clan I have not been able to directly link it to my great-grandfather or his brothers. That is when they started to move however and the person who past on the story related that [illegible] came from an Edward Cassin, which is my father, grandfathers, brother's and son's name.

I would be interested in any additional information that you have and I will pass your e-mail address on to my brother Kevin If you would like. Oh, my brothers and sisters have a web page www.expage.com/cassinnews. I have a daughter at Notre Dame and a home in Sheridan Beach (Michigan City, In.) as do two brothers and a sister, so I do get up that way quite a bit. Take care and happy St. Patrick's Day.

I am very new to this genealogy thing. I actually just seriosly started research tonight as I am planning a trip to Ireland in august.
I am starting from the earliest date in a book my mother is putting together and I am going to work backwards since she is working forward.
The paragraph I am starting with reads like this:
"Your Grandfather was the eleventh child of his parents, born in 1847,after the death of his father.
The family home was on county Kilkenny, Ireland. these were terrible years in Ireland, and we may be sure that the widow with her large family knew hard times.
When your grandfather was nine years old, she brought her children to this country.
I think the two eldest sons had come earlier.
They stopped a short time in New York state, then settled in Illinois, where most of the family have remained.
The mother lived to the age of a hundred and four years,strong in every way until her death.
She was born in 1799, and died in 1903, when your grandfather died in 1917, there were still the eight sisters living."
This William Cassin attended Lombard College in Galesdurg, which is now part of Knox. He was given a madter of arts in 1907. "Your grandfather was trained as a lwayer and surveyer and practiced both professions. After leaving college , he came west, sometimes teaching, sometimes surveying or keeping store, and arrived in Texasin 1872."
I am trying to find out more about the brothers and sisters. I am more intrested in the fathers name and family in Ireland at this point, but would like to come back this way thru the rest or the brothers and sisters after my trip.

Interesting, I always like to find fellow Thomastown researchers :)

There are 2 death indexes - one an early one that you can email for lookups:

Contact Cidney Engberg, IL Death Index Lookups - 1916-1948
Eng110@aol.com

FREE IL DEATH CERTS (post 1920 gave parents' names)
http://vitalrec.com/il.html

AND the later death index can be found for a nominal fee from a volunteer named RAG below (or at the Newberry Library in Chicago?)

Request a death index look-up and then a copy of Chicago obit from RAG at email address: rag1@attglobal.net (very dependable --nominal fee for copying costs only $2.50 each, no charge if they can't find it!) See http://www.rootsweb.com/~ilcook/index.htm -- "volunteers" for details on RAG

There is also the Social Security Death Index?
http://ancestry.com/search/rectype/vital/ssdi/main.htm

This is interesting, only because of the birthdate ... could it be mixed up and supposed to be 3/13?

EDWARD CASSIN Request Information
SSN 342-07-9454 Residence: 60609 Chicago, Cook, IL
Born 31 Mar 1880 Last Benefit:
Died Jun 1966 Issued: IL (Before 1951)

Look at the Cassins in the IL marriage database --- http://cyberdriveillinois.com/cgi-bin/archives/marriage.s

Go to ellisislandrecords.org and I see a William who was 23 yrs from Thomastown -- one arriving in 7/30/1903 and going to "Uncle Thomas's" at 337 Oakwood Blvd, in Chicago"

And then in 1905 (24 yrs) going to his home at 1337 N. Clark Street in Chicago and traveling with his cousin? THomas Walsh (who is going to same address, to his "cousin Wm Cassin's)

And then Wm. J. traveling at age 30 in 1911 as a US citizen. No manifest available.

There are a slew of John Cassins -- the two I clicked on were from Kilkenny going to NY to a sister Delia Burkes' home (he was a grocery clerk). There also seems to be a crew member named John Casssin ....

There are Ellie & Maggie from Thomastown traveling to Yonkers, NY (home) in 1899 ...

What you really need is a lookup in the Chicago Irish Family database at Ancestry.com ... lovely datebase ...

Kate,
I live in Tramore, Co. Waterford, Ireland. Which is
ca. 30 miles from Thomastown. My parents and other relatives all still live in Thomastown. All of my family lines have the typical south Kilkenny names of Walsh,Cassin,Murphy,Hutcheson & O'Keeffe. these families were concentrated in the townlands of Kilfane, Coolroe, Cloughabrody, Kilmacshane (Inistioge), Ballyhale, Knocktopher.

you can e-mail me on

Hi Stan....

Gee, long time since I have seen your name in these here parts!!
Hope you have been well....

To answer your request...the book is THE STORY OF THE IRISH RACE, by Seumas MacManus....I have gotten half way through it, but use it as a reference when I need it. I am sure there are lots of other books.

SUBJECT: 1901 CENSUS DUBLIN

Pam:

I'm assuming you're referring to the 1901 census of Dublin itself and not the total 1901 census of Ireland which is to be found in Dublin (and thru the Mormons elsewhere)!

The Mormons have done a street index for Dublin itself. It did not include a specific Dublin county suburb I was looking for so I assume it's just the city. The copies I saw were paper copies and in their Library in Salt Lake itself. I don't know whether or not they've microfilmed that index -- as you're probably aware, while Salt Lake will lend virtually any of their microfilms to any of their branch libraries for a small fee, they will NOT lend paper items. You can find out if there is a microfilm copy by checking the Salt Lake catalog to be found in their branch libraries or maybe Linda has this information handy.

The National Archives in Dublin has townland indexes for each county for 1901. As I recall, it was a somewhat complicated 2 step procedure to use them for the rural townlands but once I caught on to the system it became very raight forward. I'm sure there was some index for Dublin because I remember being able to check one address I had but I don't remember the Dublin details as most of my checking was rural. In any case, I don't know of copies of the National Archives census indexes being in this country -- Linda? The Dublin one the Mormons have is NOT the same. Both the Mormon index for Dublin (they also have one for a couple of other cities) and those in the National Archives are for addresses, NOT for names.

Judie;

Generally the parish records begin around 1830. It is different in every parish. There is an LDS pamphlet that lists the different churches (Roman Cath Presbyterian, etc) for each parish and what year available. There is a pamphlet available for each of the provinces. I have Ulster and Leinster Province. Unfortately County Cork is in Munster Province.

However, concerning Kilkenny there appears to be about 100 parishes. I see there are some Church of Ireland records from 1734 and some Catholic from 1812. If you have the name of a parish I can give you more details.

Anyone know of a series of maps published in 1778 by "Terry, Sculp. Paters Noster Row" that were mentioned by another *P subscriber? They are detailed maps, apparently available in Ireland in antique or book shops. They even have the names of buildings and owners. I am interested in getting copies of maps in Co Monaghan, in the Clones and Stonebridge area. Thanks for any help ,Bob Pleasantville NY

Dear Ms. Springer:

I am enclosing photocopies of the records which I found for you.

Death records were only kept until 1915. Beginning in 1926 death records and obituaries with pictures were printed in our Beacons.

We have no birth records; only Baptismal Records and for that an exact year, month and date is needed to locate same. This is true for all our records, be it, death, marriage, or confirmation.

If I can be of further service to you, please advise, or if ever you are in the Chicago area, feel free to come in an examine our records yourself.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Alice Alden

BECAUSE WE CARE...

August 6, 1991

Ms. Carol Springer
7228 Turkey Run Drive
Fort Wayne, IN 46815

Dear Ms. Springer:

Please excuse the delay in replying to your letter dated July 22, 1991, but I have only recently returned from vacation to find your letter awaiting a reply.

Out two (2) volumes of death records are from April 1864 through December 1887 and September, 1909 through August, 1915, which exclude two of the years you listed. I checked the issues of our Beacon from April, 1926 through December, 1926 but did not find an obituary for Marie Hintz. I also checked our "Family Records: card file. There were several "Hintz" family cards in there, but the first names did not correspond.

I am enclosing a photocopy of the marriage record of Emma Hintz and George Raabe. Also enclosed is a copy of St. Peter's Church History for your future reference.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Alice Alden

Thanks for your reply. I looked in my marriage information from Clinton County, but unfortunately the microfilm I examined only goes to 1872. If this does turn out to be your George please do let me know. His lineage is listed in the Ira Peck book published in 1863 and takes the family way back to England and continues to trace the family for generations there. The genealogy of the Peck family is listed in the British Museum and probably goes back to at least 1200. In America it includes statesmen, soldiers, clergy, etc. Franklin Peck's father, Dr. George Peck, was a physician in the war of 1812 and later founded the town of Camanche, Iowa in Clinton County. His father, Loring Peck, was either a Captain or a Colonel in the revolution. His cousins tossed tea into Boston Harbor.

Let me know what you find out, I would love to flesh out another branch on the family tree.

Chuck

Tips on Using the Illinois Statewide Death Index

- Click here for helpful hints on searching the Illinois Statewide Death Index, 1916–1950.
- If you are using Netscape, version 4.79 or below, it may be necessary to select a smaller or larger text size to align the column headings in your browser depending on your monitor's screen resolution. Text size can be changed under the View menu by clicking Increase Font (Ctrl+]) or Decrease Font (Ctrl+[).
- To print the list of deaths from the results screen, set your printer's page orientation to landscape.
- Death records were recorded in the county where the death occurred and not necessarily in the county were the decedent resided. If your search does not find a death record in the county where you expected it to occur, try selecting STATEWIDE in the location option box.
- Death certificates filed after 1947 are not currently available in the Illinois State Archives Reference Room. For deaths occurring after 1947, the death date will appear in RED.

What is the Social Security Death Index?

Ancestry.com's Social Security Death Index lists nearly 70 million names dating from as early as the 1930s. Com from the Social Security Administration's Master Death File, this searchable database is a good starting point for beginning their genealogy.

Tips for using the SSDI
Most of the names listed in the Social Security Death Index date from the 1960s. Though the Social Security Act created in 1935, a computer system for reporting death benefit claims did not exist until 1962.

Keep in mind that the Social Security Death Index does not list every person who received Social Security Benefi This index only lists deaths that were actually reported to the Social Security Administration.

Once you've found the name of a relative, you can request a copy of the full Social Security report from the Socia Security Administration. Just click on "Order original application" to send for a copy of your ancestor's original So Security information. You can also use the information in this index to obtain birth, death, and employment record

Subject: Re: Nels and Lucinda Stone

Message: Janet, I've traced some of the family:
Nels A. Stone 1855-1930, buried in Bemus Point Cemetery, Bemus Point, NY
Lucinda Sadler Stone 1851-aft 1899, buried in Bemus Point Cemetery, Bemus Point, NY
Three children: (1) Alfred Stone, b. 1880, d. 1881
(2)Florelle A. Stone b. 10 Jun 1894, d.1 Jul 1988, m. Albert E. Vanstrom
(3) Mirtie Stone Scofield, d. 1964

Are you also researching the Vanstroms? If so, I'd love to hear from you-- carol900@aol.com.

FROM: KEITH STRAIT (RKMF02A)
SUBJECT: SWEDEN - RESEARCH

Tina,

No, don't think you should have any great difficulty. You are fortunate to have both Bernard's birth date, fathers first name and mothers first name as I recall plus about 5 sisters and brothers. Should be like "shooting fish in the rain barrel".

About the only thing you don't have is the house name but you will after you find them. It will be (usually) the name at the upper left hand side of the record.

Here is the procedure. Start with the sections of the records covering the span of records of his birth year 1888. Look for birth date only until you find 23 Apr 1888. What you really look for is 23/4 first. The day is always first, the month second. A complete record can be scan fast that way. For everyone found with that birth date (there wont be many) then check to see if the name fits. If the name is close, or even if it isn't close, check the father and mother names which will be listed above the childs name. If he had sisters or brothers older than he was, they too will be listed above his name. Even if he changed his name, the birth date and other points should identify him. With all he check points, I don't see how you can miss him, assuming the birth date is correct.

Just be systematic, you will find him. This film will have several sections covering dates from 1870. Likely, you will find his parents in this other earlier sections, possibly, before they were married. This record will show where they came from so they can be traced backward. It is best to transcribe everything written plus make a photo-copy. You will come back and study it several times in the next several weeks if you like most of us. Take it slow and resist the temptation rush. Keep me informed of your findings. I try to give you pointers. Keith in Littleton CO Monday Eve 9:35 pm MST

Dear Carol:

I received your second letter. You are going to think I am the biggest bird-brain alive, but do you by any chance have a copy of your first letter to me? I have misplaced it and turned everything upside down looking for it without any luck.

I was very interested in your information about Nellie Gillis. She sounds like Nellie Mullen. She divorced her first husband and his name might have been Gillis. I don't know. Then she married the man Marty remembers - Conrad (Connie) Hanley.

She did have a son from her first marriage who had mental problems and was institutionalized. Nellie tried taking him home but it never worked out. He did jump from the window.

I had thought Aunt Lizzy was married to John Mullen, but I am beginning to wonder if Mary Cassin was his wife!? It seems to me my grandmother said something about him calling her Nellie. John Mullen was a little uppity himself. His son Lambert was some kind of a genius I guess. Graduated from Yale University and was a concert pianist and moved in high social circles.

I don't know what happened to our old family pictures. I think most of the ones my grandmother had were of the Pecks. I do have a newspaper picture that goes with Captain Cassin's obit. I am enclosing a photocopy.

I remember Margaret Mary Lambert as an infant. Her father's name was Lester and her brother was Lester, Jr. I heard about the third child but never saw her or knew her first name was Dorothy. Marty's mother Margaret was a wonderful lady and was a teacher of retarded children in the Chicago Schools. They all came to my wedding May 9, 1942 in Chicago.

Would it be possible for me to have Marty Talbot's address?

I have been trying to trace the Rinns. Does she remember them? Bill and Catherine "Dody" and their children Katherine "Katie", Billy and Dick? Dick was born the same year as my younger son Jimmy. The last I heard they were living in Crystal Lake, Illinois. They are not buried in Mt. Carmel, Hillside, Illinois.

Marty's parents and the Rinns were good friends and cousins. Catherine, "Dody" was Pearl Peck Adams (not related to my family Adams) daughter. That is, Kitty Cassin's granddaughter. Marty's mother Margaret was Anna Cassin's adopted daughter. That is Kitty Cassin's niece. Therefore, cousins.

I looked back at some of the Peck information I have and Kitty Cassin Peck did not return to Chicago in 1900. She was already living in Chicago in 1900. She must have returned sometime between 1882 (when my grandmother was born in Clinton, Iowa) and 1900 when my great grandfather George G. Peck died in Stockton, California.

You mention Thomas Cassin in your chart enclosed in your letter. I believe I met his son Byron and twin daughters when I was about 12 years old at a family reunion on the South Side in Chicago. We lived on the West Side of Chicago. It was held in someone's home and we danced and partied in their basement. Everyone had a wonderful time!

Keep in touch!

OUR REF: KK 13/95

Ms June Lane,
93 St. Croix Ct.,
IL 60504,
U.S.A.

Dear Ms Lane,

Thank you very much for your enquiry received concerning your ancestors the Cassin family, together with chq $32, for which we enclose receipt.

You mentioned that John J. Cassin was born c. 1823/1827, possibly in Mullinavat, Co. Kilkenny. He married one Mary Hickey here in Ireland prior to his departure for the U.S. their son John J. was born c.1855 at sea.

We sought a baptism for a John Cassin using our data base, we noted six records between the years 1822/1829. We noted the names of John's children, John and Thomas, we considered therefore that John's father's christian name may have been either John or Thomas. However, without possibly some more family information any conclusions would be highly speculative.

Your application form noted that John married Mary Hickey before leaving Ireland; this marriage was sought in our local data base, but without success. We have not yet input all baptisms and marriages from Co. Kilkenny, so any such search is therefore selective.

Both surnames Hickey and Cassin were numerous enough in the early and mid 19th century Kilkenny. Sadly baptisms from Mullinavat survive from 1836 only, though it may be possible to discover an earlier marriage for the CASSIN family if they originated from this part of the county.

We note that you intend to visit Ireland in July and would be glad to assist with the search. Have you any family information on Mary Hickey? Do you know if the Hickey and Cassin families originated from approximately the same area?

Any futher information like this may assist. We suggest firstly a manual search of the remainder of unindexed materials for the baptism of John Cassin as well as his marriage to Mary Hickey. Our fee for this will be IR £40.00 or equivalent in U.S dollars. Please pay cheques to K.A.S. Kilkenny. We will priontize your request as soon as we have your instructions.

We look forward to greeting you, we hope we will be broadly successful in identifying your ancestor's origins prior to your arrival here.

With best wishes,
Yours sincerely,

Mary Flood

Tips on Using the Pre-1916 Illinois Statewide Death Index

- To avoid text wrapping to multiple lines, it may be necessary to select a smaller text size in your browser depending on your monitor's screen resolution. In most browsers, text size can be changed under the View menu.
- To print the list of deaths from the results screen, set your printer's page orientation to landscape.

- Death records were recorded in the county where the death occurred and not necessarily in the county where the parents resided. If your search does not find a death record in the county where you expected it to occur, try selecting STATEWIDE in the location option box.
- The Pre-1916 Illinois Statewide Death Index is an on-going project and does not currently include death records for all counties in Illinois or complete date spans for some counties. Click here for a list of counties and date spans included in the Pre-1916 Illinois Statewide Death Index.
- Click here for information about how to obtain copies of original death records.

Hi Sandra,
No I don't think we are related. But while you're over you should maybe talk to the Cassins in Kilkenny, they are probably your relations. As far as I know they still live in Coolroebeg about 15 miles from Kilkenny City.

Philip

I am doing some family history on the Cassin's. My paternial grandmother ι
Cassin,Esther Cassin,b.1910,Australia to Edward Cassin and Lucy Sarah Wicks.Edward was b.1862 Australia, his father Michael Cassin was b.1830
Kilkenny,Ireland. Spelling of Cassin on marriage certificate "cafsin" his par were Thomas & Catherine Cafsin,nee Saunders.

I believe that my greatgrandfather Denis Cassin was born in Inistioge Paris 1832. His father was Michael and his mother was Mary Fitzgerald Cassin.
brother michael immigrated here first in april 1848. He was second about a later followed by other brothers Anthony, John and Patrick in following yea late as 1871. I also believe that the family moved to England and that Mary over here after her husband died. Perhaps Edward was Michael's brother.
grandfather was Edward Cassin born 1880, my father was Edward Cassin b 1923 my son is John Edward Cassin born 1985.
